

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN EDUCATION: INCLUSIVE CHILDHOOD EDUCATION, GRADES 1-6

— Hybrid Program Format —

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. School of Education offers a Master of Science in Inclusive Childhood Education. The program is designed for candidates with bachelor's degrees who seek dual initial certification in childhood education (grades 1-6) and students with disabilities at the childhood level.

The program admits new students in the fall semester. The curriculum is 42 credit hours and can be completed in five semesters. The program is offered in a combination of hybrid and online classes. Convenient scheduling enables you to work in full-time positions while enrolled in the program.

The program includes 150 hours of clinical experience and 14 weeks of student teaching. Clinical experiences and student teaching are completed during the day.

ACCREDITATION

The Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. School of Education is accredited based on the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) Standards through 2026.

Formerly the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), CAEP is the sole nationally recognized accrediting body for educator preparation, and is recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.
